No barrier now remains between Parker-Bridget clothes for men and young men and the goal of our ambition, for to-day they are almost universally conceded to be the only serious rival with whom the exclusive merchant tailor must reckon-the highest grade and most distinctively fashionable clothes, possessing every attribute desirable in smart attire.

To accomplish this, brains, money, and energy have been expended without stint, and the result is the garments bearing the P. B. label have all the individuality, style expression, correctness of fit and finish required by gentlemen who demand clothes of elegance and refinement.

Your particular attention is directed to the men's suits at $18,$20, and $25, and to the young men's suits at $12, $15, $18, and $20.

APRIL FOOL.

The Potomac is clear and fishing good.

The New York Telegraph yesterday, as a joke, put across the following: James J. Jeffries has decided to fight

Jack Johnson

With Sam Berger, he walked into the Morning Telegraph office last evening, carrying a calendar and $10,-000, which he tossed on the sporting editor's desk, and said:

"That is to cover Johnson's forfelt. I will fight him anywhere, any time, any place, any terms. The supremacy must rest with the white man. I had hoped to stay out of the ring the rest of my life. I would have stayed out. I had won glory enough for one man in a single lifetime. Had the championship been retained by a white man, I never should have gone back. But there being no other white man willing to undertake the task of getting the laurels back on the white brow, I shall sacrifice my desires for a rest and go after them.

"You may say for me," continued Mr. Jeffries quietly, "that I did not decide upon this step until I was thoroughly satisfied that I could do the job, and do it right. There was much doubt expressed at first whether I could ever get down to weight and keep my strength. I have refused to talk about it because I have been trying myself out. Now I know what I can do. I am satisfied that Mr. Johnson will get his just as soon as the date rolls around, if he succeeds in arranging for the battle. It cannot be too soon for me. I can be ready any time in six weeks."

Since Johnsing reached his high estate, he has it in his head that he alone is truly great, of living men or dead. Yet Alexander, in his day, made things seem rather hot; and Cyrus put up lots of hay-or so we have been taught. Leonidas stood up in front of his famed scrapping band; and Caesar did a little stunt that seemed to iar the land. Ulysses could a rough house raise, although he wore a grouch; and, coming down to later days, Napoleon was no slouch. Howard and Fulton, Formerly of Western High, in the Ithacans'

The big Red team from Ithaca arrived last night primed for the game with team last year by the Blue and Gray, when "Dukey" Mess made his famous eleventh-hour three base hit, thereby turning what seemed to be almost certain defeat into a glorious victory for 6 Georgetown. This game will be especially interesting to Washingtonians, because of the fact that both Howard and Fulton, former Western High diamond stars, will be in the line-up of the Cornell team. These two boys are the likely choices for third and second bases in the Cornell line-up for to-day and Monday.
